

Introducing Shadow Security: A New Era of Security Solutions with 20+ Years of Expertise

11 months ago

For over two decades, Shadow Security has been at the forefront of providing trusted and reliable security solutions to businesses and individuals alike. With a proud legacy built on integrity, professionalism, and 25-years' service within the UK Police Force, they have an unwavering commitment to safeguarding what matters most to your business.

Shadow Security are now excited to announce a new chapter in their journey.

Since their formation in 2003 as a specialist security consultancy business, they are committing to a new phase of innovation and growth and have recently undergone a comprehensive rebrand to better reflect the evolution and values of the business.

Jim Fitzsimmons, Company Founder & Director, told FM Business Daily: "The decision to rebrand was driven by our desire to stay ahead of industry trends and continue offering cutting-edge security solutions in an increasingly digital and interconnected world. While we've maintained the same high standards of service that have made us a trusted name for over 20 years, our refreshed brand identity represents the next step in our commitment to offering smarter, more advanced, and customised security strategies."

At the heart of the rebrand is a renewed focus on the dynamic challenges faced by businesses and individuals in today's rapidly evolving security landscape. From advanced surveillance systems to cybersecurity, Shadow's portfolio of services ensures they're equipped to tackle a broad range of security concerns. Whether it's protecting physical assets or safeguarding sensitive data, Shadow Security has the experience, technology, and expertise to provide comprehensive solutions tailored to meet their client's unique needs.

Company Director, Joe Fitzsimmons, told FM Business Daily: "As we step into this new phase of our business, we remain committed to the principles that have sustained our success for more than two decades. Our rebrand is more than just a change in appearance; it's a promise to continue offering the best in security, with the trust and expertise our clients have come to rely on. We invite you to explore our new brand and discover how Shadow Security can help secure your future."
