

OBTIVIO secures three major contracts with facilities management giants

11 months ago

In a remarkable milestone for OBTIVIO, the business consulting firm has secured three significant contracts with leading facilities management companies. This achievement underscores OBTIVIO's commitment to delivering innovative solutions and exceptional results in business consulting.

The contracts focus on providing expertise across several critical domains, including:

- ISO Implementation: Ensuring compliance and driving operational excellence.
- Health and Safety: Developing robust frameworks for employee well being and risk management.
- Business Development: Designing strategies to drive sustainable growth.
- Marketing Strategies: Crafting compelling narratives and outreach programs to enhance market presence.
- Human Resources: Streamlining processes to attract, develop, and retain top talent.
- Leadership Development: Equipping leaders with the tools and insights to inspire and innovate.

These partnerships reflect OBTIVIO's ability to adapt to industry challenges and offer tailored strategies that align with clients' objectives.

Chris Douglas the firms owner states: "We are thrilled to announce these new partnerships with some of the most prominent players in the facilities management sector. This achievement is a testament to the dedication and expertise of our team, who consistently go above and beyond to deliver measurable results.

"At OBTIVIO, we believe that collaboration and innovation are the cornerstones of success. Our mission is to empower organisations to achieve their goals while fostering growth, resilience, and excellence in their operations.

“I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our clients for entrusting us with their visions and challenges. We look forward to helping them navigate complexities, unlock opportunities, and achieve sustained success.”
