

PTSG to join forces with Salvation Army

11 months ago

Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\), via constituent company HCS Water Treatment (HCS), has been contracted to support The Salvation Army with specialist water treatment services.

The Salvation Army (TSA) is a Protestant Christian church and an international charitable organisation headquartered in London, England. It is aligned with the Wesleyan-Holiness movement. The organisation reports a worldwide membership of over 1.7 million, consisting of soldiers, officers, and adherents who are collectively known as salvationists. Its founders sought to bring salvation to the poor, destitute, and hungry by meeting both their “physical and spiritual needs”. It is present in 133 countries, running charity shops, operating shelters for the homeless, and disaster relief and humanitarian aid to developing countries.

In this contract, engineers from HCS will deliver a variety of water treatment services at sites in various locations to help ensure that TSA has clean and hygienic water and that its assets and systems are fully operational and compliant with the latest industry regulations.

PTSG has extensive experience of successfully managing multiple water hygiene and water treatment contracts for customers in many different industry sectors.
