

14forty appoints new Strategic Partnership Director

5 months ago

Integrated facilities management provider 14forty, which is part of Compass Group UK & Ireland, is strengthening its commitment to its clients' ambitions with the appointment of Tom Mitchell as Strategic Partnership Director.

Tom will focus on helping clients achieve their long-term objectives, delivering strategic value across 14forty's entire client base.

Reporting to Donna Lee, Strategic Partner for Compass Group UK & Ireland – Business & Industry, Tom will focus on anticipating client needs. His efforts will support areas such as sustainability, innovation and operational excellence.

Tom will also collaborate closely with operators and the leadership team to drive efficiency, deliver seamless service experiences, identify cost-saving opportunities and embed sustainability across all 14forty services."

Antony Collett, managing director of 14forty said: "Tom's role is pivotal and will help take our proposition to the next level as we build on our integrated offer, hospitality heritage and leadership position in social value, to deliver world-class service to our clients."

Tom joins 14forty from CBRE Global Workplace Solutions, bringing an unique blend of expertise to his role, having held positions in finance, business development and technology integration- including three years at Compass Group UK & Ireland, Business & Industry when 14forty was first founded.

Tom said: "Joining 14forty feels like coming home for an exciting new chapter in our 10-year history. With visionary new leadership, it is a time of transition and real opportunity.

“My focus will be on building partnerships that are embedded into the fabric of our clients’ goals, turning our services into enhanced and valued assets that drive resilience, efficiency and growth.”