5 months ago

Torsion Group has announced the appointment of Tony Bray as Investment and Development Director.

With over 35 years' experience in the property sector, Tony brings unparalleled expertise in managing the full life cycle of property development, from origination through to deal closure. His background spans a wide range of urban property classes, with a particular focus on Build-to-Rent (BtR), Purpose-Built Student Accommodation (PBSA) and office developments.

In his new role, Tony will lead Torsion's investment and development strategy, ensuring that the company continues to deliver exceptional projects across its growing portfolio. Drawing on his strategic insight and industry knowledge, Tony is committed to strengthening Torsion's position as a leader in the residential property sector.

Tony Bray said: "Joining Torsion is an exciting opportunity to contribute to a business that is committed to delivering high-quality, sustainable developments. My focus will be on driving innovation, identifying strategic opportunities, and ensuring our projects exceed the expectations of our clients and stakeholders. I look forward to collaborating with the talented team at Torsion to shape a successful and sustainable future for the company."

Ed Wootton, Managing Director at Torsion Developments and Construction, added: "Tony's appointment strengthens our leadership team at a crucial time for the business. His knowledge of the BtR and PBSA sectors, combined with his strategic approach to development, will help us unlock new opportunities and continue delivering excellence across our projects."
