

Laura Walker joins Sodexo as growth director for corporate and energy & resources business

10 months ago

Laura Walker has been appointed as growth director for Sodexo UK & Ireland's Corporate Services and Energy & Resources business.

Laura has over 15 years' experience working across real estate, FM, F&B and hospitality for companies across a range of sectors and industries.

In her new role Laura will drive Sodexo's growth in the delivery of food and workplace services, and facilities management to some of the world's most recognisable brands. Sodexo's corporate services and energy & resources business operates across a range of different environments including headquarters, regional offices, data centres, manufacturing centres and research and development hubs through to offshore platforms, refineries and remote sites.

Lynsey O'Keefe, CEO Corporate Services and Energy & Resources Sodexo UK & Ireland said: "We are delighted to welcome Laura to our team. She has a strong background with both B2B and B2C brands and is a commercially astute director who has delivered profitable net growth for both private and PLC organisations. With her extensive experience and results driven mindset, Laura will help us continue to drive our growth in the delivery of sustainable, nutritious and delicious food choices, and valued experiences in the workplace."

Laura added: "I'm thrilled to be joining Sodexo at such an exciting time for the business. Sodexo has a strong reputation for delivering exceptional food and workplace experiences, and I'm looking forward to working with the team to build on this legacy, drive growth, and create innovative, sustainable solutions for our clients across diverse and dynamic environments."

Sodexo's heritage is in food, it has a range of food solutions with sustainability at the core developed for different markets, these include: Good Eating Company which offers bespoke catering services for mid-sized to large organisations in industries such as creative, media and arts, investment, financial management and pharmaceuticals; Fooditude, a high end sustainable delivered-in workplace food solution. Sodexo's food brands include Modern Recipe, a contemporary, sustainable food offer designed for corporate workplace dining and Kitchen Works, designed to provide nutritious meals which are accessible and affordable for all.

Furthermore, Sodexo demonstrates how the seamless delivery of food, hospitality and FM services can significantly enhance the employee and consumer experience. As the leading expert self-delivering in these fields, its unique, insight-led proposition attracts clients who want to maximise value creation from a single, trusted partner.
