8 months ago

Vertas Group has announced that Chris Osborne has been appointed as the new Associate Director of Catering and Facilities Management Services.

Chris joins the Group with extensive experience gained throughout his 34-year career in catering, which spans multiple sectors, including Retail, Healthcare, Education, Business and Industry, as well as Government.

For the past 14 years, Chris has worked in the facilities management sector, leading a number of multi-site operations and gaining a deep understanding of the industry's evolving needs. He is equally committed to professional growth and is currently completing a Master's Degree and Level 7 Apprenticeship in Executive Leadership, furthering his operational and strategic skills.

In his new role, Chris will initially focus on gaining an insight into the business and its operations. A key priority will be working on Vertas' latest joint venture with Nottinghamshire County Council, ensuring a smooth mobilisation and transition of colleagues ahead of the contract start date.

When asked about his new role, Chris said: "I am pleased to join Vertas Group at a very exciting time. I look forward to supporting the transition as Vertas embarks on its latest joint venture and working to ensure the company's culture remains at the forefront throughout the process. Aside from this, I will work to encourage the team to support current and future colleagues in the Catering and FM services of Vertas, maintaining high customer and client service standards."
