

L&G appoints Head of Property Operations

1 year ago

L&G has appointed Steph Moore as Head of Property Operations within its Asset Management business. The appointment underpins the strong momentum in L&G's real estate strategy, building on its industry leading reputation as a property owner of choice.

Steph will drive and own L&G's relationships with key property management partners (including the award winning Mercury Model), continue to evolve Vizta, L&G's digital business-to-business platform dedicated to supporting its occupiers and support wider real estate growth within L&G's Private Markets platform.

Steph joins the business after spending 20 years at JLL in their Property & Asset Management business, most recently as L&G's Contract Director, a role she held since January 2024. Having worked closely with L&G throughout her time at JLL, and accumulated a wealth of property management experience, her quantifiable track record in leading a high-performance team will contribute greatly to the growth of L&G's real estate capabilities within its Private Markets platform.

The arrival of Steph comes as Mark Tyson (previously Head of Asset Services and Operations) leaves L&G to take up a new role as Managing Director of Bellrock's Intelligent Asset Care Business Unit and a member of its Executive Leadership Team. Mark has worked closely with Bellrock during his time at L&G, and this move will further strengthen the dedicated and collaborative partnership between L&G and Bellrock, as Mark will continue to work alongside L&G in his new role.

Michael Barrie, Head of Real Estate, Asset Management, L&G: "I am delighted to welcome Steph to L&G's real estate team. Steph's extensive industry expertise and demonstrated leadership in the success and growth of JLL's partnership with L&G render her an incredibly valuable asset to the business. She will play a key role in delivering the long-term ambitions of our growing real estate platform, and I am confident that this appointment and Steph's strong knowledge of the business will strengthen our operational excellence. I wish Mark the best in his new position, and look forward to our continued partnership with Bellrock, which Mark will remain a part of in his new role.”

Steph Moore, Head of Property Operations, Asset Management, L&G: “I am excited to have joined L&G’s Asset Management business, working alongside a driven and innovative team within its real estate platform. I hope to support growth and commercial momentum within Private Markets, by fostering and strengthening L&G’s relationships with our property management partners and evolving our occupier support platform, Vizta. Having worked closely alongside L&G in my previous role, I have a strong awareness of the business’s model and partnerships, and I look forward to leveraging this in my new position.”
