

Ede's Win BAR's Top Workplace Relocation Award

4 months ago

Ede's \(UK\) Ltd has been awarded Workplace Relocation Company of the Year 2025 by the British Association of Removers \(BAR\).

This national recognition reflects the exceptional standards, dedication, and professionalism the Ede's team delivers across every move from complex multi-site relocations to long-term storage and with ESG at the heart of what they do, sustainable removal and clearance services.

Being recognised at this level is a huge honour and a proud milestone in their journey, more over it is now the eighth time they have been awarded this accolade.

Ede's commented: "To our current clients, and those we've had the pleasure of working with in the past: thank you. Your continued support, trust, and partnership have made this recognition possible. Every move, every project, every relationship has shaped who we are today.

"Whether you've worked with us recently or it's been a while, we'd love the opportunity to support your next project. From secure storage to business relocations and workplace transformation we're here to help make it easy."
