

BICSc Awards Finalists Revealed!

7 months ago

The finalists for this year's prestigious BICSc Awards have been announced after the Institute received a record number of entries for its industry-leading awards.

The BICSc awards attracted a landmark surge in entries which saw a significant increase in nominations up 25 per cent on previous years, as finalists were revealed for the renowned accolades, which celebrate the standout stars of the professional cleaning community.

The awards proved phenomenally popular once again as BICSc announced a substantial increase in the number of nominations for this year's awards with winners being revealed at a glittering ceremony being staged this September.

Neil Spencer-Cook, BICSc Group Managing Director, said: "We are delighted to reveal our impressive line-up of finalists for this year's BICSc Awards.

"We were thrilled to receive record numbers of nominations which saw an incredible increase of 25% on previous years, which demonstrates how highly regarded the BICSc Awards are within the global professional cleaning industry. We look forward to celebrating with the winners at our awards ceremony later this year and congratulate everyone who entered and were nominated – an achievement in itself."

The renowned awards showcase the top performers from the professional cleaning sector operating in the industry worldwide and this year's awards include a new category – the Lifetime Achievement Award. The BICSc Awards ceremony, which is always a sell-out success, will be staged on 25th September 2025 at Whittlebury Hall & Spa, Whittlebury, Northamptonshire, with tickets going on sale from June 9th 2025.

Neil Spencer-Cook added: "We are incredibly proud that our awards recognise and reward the exceptional commitment and performance of the leading lights from our industry, and it is an opportunity to highlight the vital work that takes place on a daily basis within the diverse professional cleaning community.”
