

Apleona enhances its UK market position through the acquisition of Corrigenda

10 months ago

Apleona, a leading European integrated facilities management company based in Neu-Isenburg, near Frankfurt am Main, has acquired Corrigenda, a technical facility management company based in Fareham, Hampshire. The transaction closed on 1 August 2025.

Established in 2000, Corrigenda specialises in delivering high-quality, bespoke facility management with a particular focus on the public sector, education and local authorities.

The company has a strong presence in the south of the UK where it has built a strong client base and has become a significant regional player. Corrigenda provides technical and energy management services, as well as maintenance and installation services for mechanical, electrical and HVAC systems. Employing around 200 people, including 140 technicians, the company specialises in managing complex facilities and multiple sites, as well as the decarbonisation of buildings.

This is Apleona's third acquisition in the UK since 2022, reinforcing its strategic focus on growing and improving its integrated facilities management services across the UK. The move strengthens Apleona's regional presence and range of services with a particular emphasis on complex technical services, digitalisation, and green real estate decarbonisation solutions.

Michael Engel, COO Apleona Group, comments: "In the coming years, we will continue to expand and strengthen our European platform through further bolt-on acquisitions, such as Corrigenda, in the UK, Ireland, and other countries, in order to achieve a market-leading position in Europe."

Ray Casey, Regional Head for Northern Europe, part of Apleona's highly successful international business adds: "We take a thoughtful and intentional approach to acquisitions, and we welcome our new colleagues from Corrigenda with open arms as we continue our strategic growth to compete and challenge the UK market “

Adrian Connor, Managing Director of Apleona UK, comments: “We are delighted to welcome Corrigenda to Apleona UK, whose expertise complements our business in the UK perfectly. Leveraging the experience and expertise gained from our previous successful integrations, we are committed to ensuring a smooth transition and delivering sustainable growth.”

Paul Spencer, CEO of Corrigenda adds: “This marks a milestone for all of us at Corrigenda. We are eager to become part of the Apleona team and are excited about the opportunity to build together, elevate our service quality and broaden our range of clients.”

The parties have agreed not to disclose the financial details of the transaction.
