

Mrs Buckét secures major cleaning contract with Monmouthshire Building Society

6 months ago

In a proud celebration of Welsh enterprise, two values-driven Welsh businesses – Mrs Buckét, the award-winning commercial cleaning company, and Monmouthshire Building Society – have come together in a brand-new partnership.

United by a shared commitment to community, professionalism, and social value, Mrs Buckét has been awarded the contract to clean the majority of Monmouthshire Building Society's branches, including its Newport headquarters.

The contract creates new jobs for the Swansea-based commercial cleaning company, as well as additional hours for some of its current staff.

It has also of TUPE'd (Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment)) two members of the Building Society's current cleaning staff, protecting their jobs and allowing them to join the Mrs Buckét workforce.

Mrs Buckét will be cleaning Monmouthshire Building Society's 11 branches and agency offices at Brecon, Risca, Cardiff Queen Street, Handpost Newport, Caerleon Road Newport, John Frost Square Newport, Swansea, Cwmbran, Chepstow, Monmouth and Caldicot.

This is the second financial services contract that Mrs Buckét has won in recent months, as it has also been appointed to clean a financial office in Cardiff.

Rachael Flanagan, Mrs Buckét's CEO and founder, commented: "It is great to be working with Monmouthshire Building Society as it is a business that shares the same values as we do – working with and giving back to the communities in which we work.

“It is also great to be supported by this contract win by another successful Welsh business such as Monmouthshire Building Society – it has such a rich heritage in Wales. We look forward to working with the team closely in the coming months.”

Mark Howell, Facilities Manager at Monmouthshire Building Society, said: “We are all about supporting Welsh businesses and Mrs Buckét is the perfect example of what an entrepreneur with a vision and hard work ethic can achieve.

“We have been really impressed with the time and effort that the team has put into researching our needs as a business and ensuring that some of our housekeeping staff remain in post. Mrs Buckét’s work in the community is also impressive and we look forward to forging social value partnerships with Mrs Buckét in the future.”
