

PTSG Secures Contract with Bensons for Beds

6 months ago

Premier Technical Services Group Ltd (PTSG) has been appointed to deliver specialist security maintenance for the UK's largest bed retailer, Bensons for Beds.

With 166 stores nationwide, Bensons for Beds has been a familiar name in British bedrooms for decades. Founded in 1950 by Cyril Benson, the company opened its first dedicated bed centre in 1972 and today operates a mix of concessions and stand-alone stores from its headquarters in Accrington, Lancashire.

Under the new agreement, engineers from Trinity Fire & Security – part of PTSG Fire Solutions Ltd – will carry out planned preventative maintenance on security systems at 22 Bensons for Beds sites across the country.

PTSG's security offering covers everything from straightforward stand-alone systems to advanced integrated solutions, tailored to each client's needs. Services include CCTV, access control, intruder alarms and door entry systems – ensuring robust protection for both people and property.

This latest contract reinforces PTSG's position as a trusted partner for national brands seeking reliable, expert security and compliance services.
