

Sodexo launches free mortgage advice to boost employee financial wellbeing

4 months ago

Sodexo UK & Ireland has partnered with Charles Cameron & Associates to offer all 30,000 employees free personalised mortgage advice.

This new service is part of Sodexo's ongoing commitment to supporting employee wellbeing with practical, meaningful benefits. Few employers provide such tailored and accessible financial guidance, which helps employees confidently navigate the housing market – whether they're first-time buyers, remortgaging or exploring property options. This partnership demonstrates Sodexo's commitment to providing meaningful support beyond traditional benefits.

Bill Buchan, HR Director of Sodexo UK & Ireland, said: "Our people are at the heart of our business. They deliver excellence every day, and we want to support them as much as we can. It's our ambition to ensure they feel they belong, that they can act with purpose, and thrive in their own way.

"By providing access to free, expert mortgage advice, we aim to reduce financial stress and help our employees make informed decisions. This support ensures they receive tailored, impartial guidance – whether they are buying their first home, remortgaging, or exploring other property-related financial options."

The new mortgage support adds to Sodexo's existing suite of employee benefits, including:

- An employee assistance programme offering confidential advice
- Access to digital health services through YuLife, including a 24/7 virtual GP
- Mental health support programmes

- Microlearning modules
- Sodexo Discounts for savings on everyday shopping
- Sodexo Reward Card, a prepaid card with cashback options from leading retailers
