

Bidvest Noonan Partners with Young Enterprise Northern Ireland to Inspire the Next Generation of Entrepreneurs

2 months ago

Bidvest Noonan has announced its new role as an Impact Partner with Young Enterprise Northern Ireland (YENI), reinforcing its commitment to supporting the communities it serves and investing in future generations.

Through this partnership, Bidvest Noonan will contribute to YENI's enterprise education programmes, which reach over 90,000 students across Northern Ireland each year. These programmes are designed to equip young people with vital skills such as creativity, commercial awareness, and entrepreneurial confidence, preparing them to thrive in a rapidly changing global economy.

Gillian McLean, Senior Business Development Director at Bidvest Noonan, commented: "At Bidvest Noonan, we believe in investing in the future, and that means supporting the next generation of leaders and innovators. Young Enterprise NI is doing incredible work to prepare young people for the challenges and opportunities of tomorrow. We're proud to stand alongside them and contribute to building a more enterprising and resilient society."

Carol Fitzsimons MBE, CEO of Young Enterprise NI, welcomed the collaboration: "We are delighted to have Bidvest Noonan join us as an Impact Partner. Their commitment to community and innovation aligns perfectly with our mission. With their support, we can expand our reach and ensure more young people across Northern Ireland have the opportunity to develop the skills they need to succeed in life and work."

This collaboration underscores Bidvest Noonan's ongoing commitment to creating opportunities, nurturing talent, and shaping a brighter future for young people and the communities it serves.
