

Celebrating excellence: Tilbury Douglas 2025 Inspiring People Awards winners announced

8 months ago

Tilbury Douglas has announced the winners of this year's Inspiring People Awards, celebrating colleagues who consistently go above and beyond to make a difference.

The awards received a record-breaking number of nominations, reflecting the exceptional pride, teamwork, and innovation displayed by the company's people. After the Executive Committee selected the shortlists, the winners were chosen by the Board and announced at a special ceremony held in Birmingham, recognising outstanding achievements across the business.

Inspiring People Award Winners:

- Community Impact: Clair Wakefield (Social Value Coordinator, Infrastructure)
- Trailblazer: Chris Wilde (Senior Planner, South Wales, Regional Building)
 - Highly Commended: James Perks (Senior Quantity Surveyor, West Midlands, Regional Building)
- Rising Star: Louie Caren (Assistant Quantity Surveyor, South West & Wales, Engineering)
- Cornerstone: Katy Duggan (Proposals Manager, East Midlands, Regional Building)
- Marvellous Manager: Lee Mason (Contracts Manager, Midlands, Engineering)

- Early Careers Champion: Will Canwell (Apprentice Quantity Surveyor, North East, Regional Building)
 - Highly Commended: Curtis Richards (Apprentice Estimator, South Wales, Regional Building)

- Phenomenal Project: Oldham Old Library
 - Highly Commended: Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo

Tilbury Douglas is proud to celebrate the individuals and teams who drive the company's values, delivering innovation, community impact, and excellence across all projects. The company extended its huge congratulations to all winners, highly commended colleagues, and shortlisted nominees, and thanked everyone who participated by submitting nominations.