

Excellerate Services UK and Ireland announce promotion of Sarah Newland to Director of People Services

6 months ago

Excellerate Services UK & Ireland has announced the promotion of Sarah Newland from Group Head of People Services to Director of People Services.

In her new role, Sarah will lead the company's people strategy, driving initiatives that support talent development, employee engagement and organisational growth.

Excellerate Services UK & Ireland Excellerate Services is a dynamic, data-led market leader within the soft FM sector, with a team of over 9000 working across more than 2400 client sites throughout the UK and Ireland. Its award-winning, proprietary management and information platform, Velocity, allows Excellerate to deliver data-driven, transparent services to a range of clients across several industry sectors including higher education, retail, distribution and corporate environments.