

Tilbury Douglas appoints Chief Financial Officer

6 months ago

Tilbury Douglas, a leading UK building, infrastructure, engineering and fit-out business, has appointed Martin Harrison as its Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Martin has over 20 years in construction and infrastructure and has held senior roles at Tarmac Contracting, Vistry and Fulcrum Utility Services. He has a strong track record of delivering profitable growth and leading high-performance teams.

Craig Tatton, Chief Executive Officer at Tilbury Douglas, commented: “Martin’s industry knowledge, cultural fit and the positive contributions he has made to our business over the past three months, whilst working on an interim basis, made him the preferred candidate. I look forward to working with Martin as we continue to deliver our business plan and build on our position as a trusted provider in the UK construction market.”

Martin added: “I feel proud and privileged to be working with talented colleagues and for a business with an established reputation and values that I share. I’m excited about our prospects and look forward to helping to deliver on our growth plans in the years ahead.”
