

Ventro Strengthens Electrical & Security Expertise with Strategic Acquisition

2 months ago

Ventro Group has announced the acquisition of Harrold Jones Services, a highly respected provider of electrical, security, fire safety and building refurbishment services based in the heart of the Midlands. With annual revenues of £13.7m, HJS brings significant scale and capability to the wider Group. This strategic move strengthens Ventro Groups existing team and reinforces its commitment to delivering a comprehensive suite of building compliance solutions nationwide.

The acquisition was driven by HJS's strong service record and expertise in electrical, security systems and building refurbishment solutions. With both businesses sharing closely aligned values, the partnership represents a natural step in Ventro (Group)s progression from a fire safety specialist to a leading provider of end-to-end building compliance solutions.

Harvey Melvin, Group CEO of Ventro, stated: "This acquisition is an exciting milestone for Ventro. This is a strategic acquisition for Ventro Group to expand on our existing electrical and security offering and further improving our industry leading expertise and experience. HJS's commitment to quality means we can deliver even greater value to our clients, helping us achieve our goal of becoming the UK's leading and most trusted building compliance partner."

Brian Rowley, Managing Director of HJS added:

"Joining Ventro Group provides an incredible opportunity to enhance the service we provide to our customers. We Know that with Ventro our customers will benefit from the continuity of our dedicated team but also from Ventro's extensive expertise, innovative systems and processes, and full suite of compliance services. This partnership ensures our customers and staff can rely on a company capable of supporting their evolving needs today and beyond."

Founded in 1979, HJS has earned a strong reputation in the Midlands and beyond for delivering reliable and innovative building compliance solutions with a particular emphasis on electrical and security services. With many long-serving team members, the company is recognised for its high level of customer service and for fostering a supportive and rewarding workplace. Ventro is delighted to welcome HJS employees into the group, offering new opportunities for growth, development, and collaboration within a rapidly expanding team.

The acquisition delivers significant advantages for clients of both Ventro and HJS. Customers will benefit from a broader range of integrated services, combining Ventro's nationwide compliance expertise with HJS's trusted solutions. Existing clients can expect continuity of service from familiar teams, enhanced support, faster response times, and access to innovative systems and processes. This partnership ensures that all customers, whether long-standing or new, receive a more seamless and comprehensive approach to building compliance, tailored to meet their evolving needs.

This exciting next step in Ventro Group's growth journey strengthens its position as a leading building compliance partner across the UK. The acquisition expands the Group's expertise, resources, and service offering, allowing clients to benefit from more comprehensive solutions, enhanced support, and the reassurance of working with a trusted, nationwide partner.
