

24-7 Group Appoints Sean Carroll as Operations Director to Drive Strategic Growth and Operational Excellence

3 hours ago

24-7 Group has announced the appointment of Sean Carroll as Operations Director, marking yet another significant step in the company's continued expansion and commitment to operational excellence across all of its service offerings.

With over 25 years of international experience in the construction and fit-out industry, Sean brings a depth of expertise that spans the UK, Europe, the Middle East and South Africa. He has built a distinguished career leading complex, high-value projects and scaling operational infrastructures for major global clients.

Sean's background includes full end-to-end project lifecycle management, the successful delivery of multidisciplinary programmes, and a proven ability to strengthen business performance. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated a consistent track record of driving growth, increasing turnover, and building high-performing teams across diverse and challenging environments.

Sean brings significant value to the Group in areas such as:

- Strategic operations management
- P&L ownership and commercial contract leadership
- Client and stakeholder relationship management
- Safety leadership and compliance

· Project management methodologies and process optimisation

In his new role, Sean will join the operational leadership team and be pivotal in driving 24-7 Group's operational strategy, ensuring robust structures are in place to support the company's accelerated growth plans. He will focus on enhancing operational scalability, strengthening delivery frameworks, and implementing best-in-class processes to further elevate the client experience.

Sean Carroll commented: "I'm excited to be joining 24-7 Group at such a pivotal moment in its growth journey. The team has built an impressive reputation for reliability, responsiveness, and high-quality delivery. I look forward to helping drive the next phase of operational maturity, supporting our clients, and enabling the business to scale sustainably and strategically."

CEO Andy Hawes of 24-7 Group, said: "Sean's appointment marks another milestone for the business. His global experience, strategic mindset, and proven leadership in complex operational environments make him an ideal fit for 24-7 Group's future ambitions. We are confident that Sean will play a key role in strengthening our operational foundations and helping us deliver even greater value to our clients."
