Business Moves Group has announced the appointment of Ricky Kruger as Southern Regional Manager.

Kruger will ensure compliance and operational procedures are in place to support the company's distribution network. He will also explore new opportunities and support BMG to meet the growing demand for logistical support in business end user logistics and last-mile deliveries.

Kruger joins BMG from a freight distribution company, bringing over a decade of leadership experience in logistics, transport, and sales. His appointment comes at a time of significant growth for the company's southern operations.

A key priority for Kruger will be ensuring robust compliance and security protocols throughout the supply chain. He has vast experience in supporting teams through specialist training certifications, like heavy lifting and equipment handling.

Ricky Kruger, southern regional manager at BMG, said: "I'm thrilled to join BMG at such an exciting time for the company. The southern region has a fantastic foundation, and I'm looking forward to building on this by enhancing our service offering and expanding our capabilities in technical distribution. My focus will be on delivering exceptional service while maintaining the highest standards of compliance and operational excellence that our clients expect."

Rachel Houghton, managing director at BMG, said: "Ricky's extensive experience in logistics and proven leadership make him the ideal person to drive growth in this vital region. We're confident that under his guidance, our southern teams will continue to deliver the specialist, time-critical services that set BMG apart in the technical distribution sector."
