

Corps Security Appoints Non-Executive Director Kathryn Fleming

4 months ago

Corps Security, the social enterprise security specialist, strengthens its board by appointing Kathryn Fleming as Non-Executive Director (NED).

As an experienced NED and Chief Financial Officer, Fleming brings over two decades of senior financial leadership experience from complex, multi-entity organisations. She is currently the CFO of the Devonshire Group and holds an NED role at FRP Advisory, alongside being a Trustee of Hampstead Theatre.

Fleming has a proven track record of leading intricate financial strategies, modernising reporting systems, managing risks, championing data-driven decisions, and ensuring long-term stewardship of assets. Fleming builds and continuously improves financially resilient, future-fit organisations, with a particular focus on commercial finance, operational optimisation, investment oversight, and multi-stakeholder reporting. Under Fleming's leadership, she has developed sustainable growth strategies across the legal, technology, security, retail and charity sectors.

With senior finance roles in both the private sector and charitable organisations, Fleming has led large-scale transformation programmes, strengthening financial governance frameworks, and overseeing significant capital and development investments. Her portfolio includes positions at Control Risks, Eversheds Sutherland, Marks and Spencer, and British Telecom.

Fleming will sit alongside the Corps board comprising: Chris Nickols, Chairman; Mike Bullock, Chief Executive Officer; Fiona Strens, Non-Executive Director and Paul Craggs, Chief Financial Officer.

Kathryn Fleming, NED of Corps Security, said: "I am delighted to join Corps Security. I have a deep-rooted passion for working with purpose-driven organisations, and Corps' ethos as a social enterprise aligns strongly with my values. I look forward to contributing my experience to support Corps' strategic development and further its mission."

Chris Nickols, Chairman of the Corps Security board, said: "Kathryn's extensive and wide-reaching experience as both an NED and CFO will be invaluable to Corps. We are thrilled to welcome Kathryn to the team and look forward to the experienced insight she will bring."