

Growth and Engagement Lead Excellerate Services' 2026 So Far

2 months ago

Excellerate Services has announced it has enjoyed a strong start to 2026, delivering four new client mobilisations and welcoming hundreds of new colleagues into the business.

Alongside this growth, the company has hosted a series in-person townhall sessions across the UK, led by its senior leadership team. The sessions provided updates on business performance and strategic priorities for the year ahead, while giving regional teams the opportunity to ask questions, share feedback and build enthusiasm for 2026.

Johan Venter, CEO of Excellerate Services said: “We are proud to start the year at such pace, welcoming new clients and colleagues to the business. Our townhall sessions have provided a valuable opportunity to connect face to face, share our plans and ensure our teams feel informed, engaged and energised for the year ahead.”
