The RHA won the SME Business and Trade Association of the Year at an industry event on Monday 22 June. For the second year in a row, the association was crowned in a very strong field at the SME4Labour Excellence Awards 2026 in London. The awards celebrate organisations and individuals who make a difference.

RHA Managing Director Richard Smith said: “This is the second year we have won this award, and it recognises our effective stakeholder engagement and the collaborative way we work with partners, members and decision-makers to champion the road transport and logistics sector.

“It’s always pleasing to see the RHA team recognised for their efforts and the impact they make through strong relationships and shared purpose. This is also testament to the work our members do to help us shape a better future for our key sector. A huge thank you to everyone who voted and supported us.”
